Protecting the environment is very important for our planet. We need to take care of nature to keep the Earth clean and healthy. There are many simple things we can do to help the environment. For example, we can recycle paper, plastic, and glass. Recycling helps to reduce waste and save resources. Another way to protect the environment is to save water. We should turn off the tap when brushing our teeth and take shorter showers. Also, using less electricity can help. Turning off lights when we do not need them and using energy-efficient bulbs can make a big difference.

In addition, planting trees is also very good for the environment. Trees clean the air and provide homes for animals. They also help to keep the climate stable. We can all plant a tree in our garden or join a community tree-planting event. Using public transport, walking, or riding a bike instead of driving a car helps reduce pollution. Cars produce a lot of harmful gases that pollute the air. By choosing other ways to travel, we can keep the air clean and reduce our carbon footprint. Everyone can help protect the environment. By making small changes in our daily lives, we can make a big difference for our planet.

Plastic pollution, also known as 'white pollution', has serious effects on our environment. Plastic waste is everywhere, from our cities to our oceans. This type of pollution harms wildlife and plants. Animals often mistake plastic for food, which can hurt or even kill them. Plants and animals are also affected when their habitats are polluted with plastic waste.

Plastic does not break down easily. It takes hundreds of years to decompose. During this time, it can release harmful chemicals into the soil and water, affecting both animals and humans. Microplastics, tiny pieces of plastic, are especially dangerous. They can enter the food chain and be eaten by both marine life and people, causing health problems.

To mitigate the impact of plastic pollution, many countries have taken action. For example, Sweden has a very good recycling system. Almost 99% of their household waste is recycled. This helps keep plastic out of the environment. Rwanda has gone even further by banning plastic bags. This makes their cities cleaner and reduces the amount of plastic waste. Germany has a system where people can return plastic bottles and get money back. This encourages people to recycle more.

By following the examples of these green countries, we can all help to reduce plastic pollution. Simple actions like using reusable bags and bottles, and properly sorting waste for recycling can make a big difference. If everyone works together, we can protect our environment from the harmful effects of plastic pollution and create a cleaner, healthier world for future generations.

1. What is the main idea of the passage?
- A. The effects of microplastics on marine life.
 - B. 'White pollution' and ways to combat it.
 - C. The recycling system in a green country - Sweden.

- D. How plastic pollution affects only animals.
2. Which of the following is NOT mentioned in the passage?
- A. The impact of plastic pollution on human health.
- B. Actions taken by Germany to reduce plastic pollution.
- C. The time it takes for plastic to decompose.
- D. The financial benefits of recycling plastic.
3. Which statement is NOT true according to the passage?
- A. Plastic pollution is harmful to both wildlife and plants.
- B. Rwanda has banned plastic bags to reduce plastic waste.
- C. Plastic decomposes quickly and does not release harmful chemicals.
- D. Microplastics can enter the food chain and affect human health.
4. What does this in the sentence 'This helps keep plastic out of the environment' refer to?

VI. Read the text and choose the letter (A, B, C or D) to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. Write your answers in the box provided. (1 pt)

Protecting the environment is very important for our planet. We need to take care of nature to keep the Earth clean and healthy. There are many simple things we can do to help the environment. For example, we can recycle paper, plastic, and glass. Recycling helps to reduce waste and save resources. Another way to protect the environment is to save water. We should turn off the tap when brushing our teeth and take shorter showers. Also, using less electricity can help. Turning off lights when we do not need them and using energy-efficient bulbs can make a big difference.

In addition, planting trees is also very good for the environment. Trees clean the air and provide homes for animals. They also help to keep the climate stable. We can all plant a tree in our garden or join a community tree-planting event. Using public transport, walking, or riding a bike instead of driving a car helps reduce pollution. Cars produce a lot of harmful gases that pollute the air. By choosing other ways to travel, we can keep the air clean and reduce our carbon footprint. Everyone can help protect the environment. By making small changes in our daily lives, we can make a big difference for our planet.

VI. Read the text and choose the letter (A, B, C or D) to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. Write your answers in the box provided. (1 pt)

Today's grandparents are joining their grandchildren on social media, but the different generations' online habits couldn't be more different.

Sheila, aged 59, says, "I join to see what my grandchildren are doing, as my daughter posts videos and photos of them. It's a much better way to see what they're doing than waiting for letters and photos in the post."

Ironically, Sheila's grandchildren are less likely to use Facebook themselves. Children under 17 in the UK are leaving it - only 2.2 million users are under 17 - but they're not going far from their smartphones. Chloe, aged 15, even sleeps with her phone. "It's my alarm clock so I have to," she says. "I look at it before I go to sleep and as soon as I wake up."

Unlike her grandmother's generation, Chloe's age group is spending so much time on their phones at home that they are missing out on spending time with their friends in real life. Sheila, on the other hand, has made contact with old friends from school she hasn't heard from in forty years. "We use Facebook to arrange to meet all over the country," she says. "It's changed my social life completely."

Peter, 38 and father of two teenagers, reports that he used to be on his phone or laptop constant was always connected and I felt like I was always working," he says. "HOW could I tell my kids to get off their phones if I was always in front of a screen myself?" So, in the evenings and at weekends, he takes his SIM card out of his smartphone and puts it into an old-style mobile phone that can only make calls and send text messages. "I'm not completely cut off from the world in case of emergencies, but the important thing is I'm setting a good example to my kids and spending more quality time with them"

1. What is the best title of the passage?
A. Digital Devices in Education B. Digital Habits of Parents
C. Digital Devices in Teenagers' Study D. Digital Habits across Generations
2. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as a way Ms. Sheila uses social media?
A. Seeing her grandchildren's videos and photos B. Sending letters and photos to her friends
C. Making contact with her old friends. D. Using Facebook to arrange meetings
3. What does the word "it" in paragraph 3 refer to?
A. alarm clock B. phone C. Facebook D. the U.K
4. Which of the following is TRUE, according to the passage?
A. Mr. Peter hasn't changed the way he uses his phone at weekends.
B. Wany teenagers under 17 in the U.K can't stay away from their phones.
C. All parents have no intention of returning to older technology.
D. Grandparents don't think that digital devices have affected their social life.

SOUND ADVICE FOR LANGUAGE LEARNERS

A recent survey of a language learning magazine has consulted a number of experts in the field of a second language acquisition. Their advice may prove invaluable for those (1) _____ a language course. One suggestion is that you assess whether you are likely to be successful at learning a language? Did you enjoy studying languages at school, for example?

The major charge will be your own time and effort. Therefore, you must be sure that the course on offer leads to a (2) _____ qualification. Also, be realistic in your goals If you don't set achievable aims, you are more likely to give up.

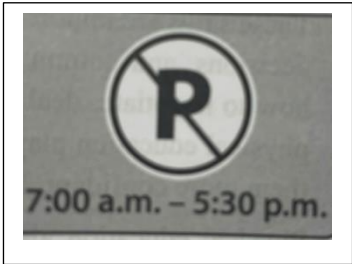

Do not be deceived by thinking that the most expensive courses are the best. (3) _____ around to get the best possible value for money. You should also bear in mind that the faster you learn a language, the more quickly you forget it. Sandra Miller, a French teacher, tried to teach herself German by enrolling in an intensive course. Already fluent in four languages and with a sound knowledge of teaching methodology her chances of making progress were high. Three years (4) _____, she remembers very little. She feels her biggest mistake was not to follow up her first experience. "I should have consolidated what I'd learnt by continuing to study, even if it were by myself."

Dear Jane,

I hope you're doing well! I want to share something interesting with you about how the lifestyle of Vietnamese teenagers has changed over time.

In the past, teenagers had a simple life. They spent most of their time helping their families, studying, and socialising with neighbours. Family members often lived together in large households, and they had little privacy. There were fewer choices in education and career paths, so teenagers couldn't always pursue what they truly wanted.

Nowadays, teenagers have more freedom and opportunity to express themselves. Thanks to technology, they can connect with people worldwide, explore different interests, and choose their own future. Education has also become more democratic, so everyone has a fair chance to develop their talents. However, with social media and the Internet, some teens feel pressure to keep up with trends.

Each generation experiences life differently, but I think both the past and present have their advantages. What is teenage life like in your country? I'd love to hear from you!

Best,

Lan

1. What was the lifestyle of Vietnamese teenagers like in the past?
- A. They had many choices in education and careers.
B. They spent most of their time helping families and studying.
C. They often travelled around the world.
D. They used the Internet a lot.
2. Why couldn't teenagers in the past always follow their own interests?
- A. Because their parents forced them to study abroad.
B. Because they preferred to live a simple life.
C. Because there were limited choices in education and careers.
D. Because they were not interested in education.
3. What helps teenagers explore their interests?
- A. Education B. Freedom C. Opportunity D. Technology
4. Which of the following is TRUE according to the letter?
- A. Social media can sometimes make teenagers feel pressured.
B. Teenagers in the past had more privacy than teenagers today.
C. Education today gives fewer opportunities to young people.
D. Teenagers today rarely use social media.

There are over 7,000 languages in the world today. English is probably the most widely spoken language by native speakers after Mandarin Chinese, but it’s also the most widely learned second language and is an official language in many countries. One reason (1) _____ English is so widespread is because it has become the main language of international business and politics. For example, most of the information on the Internet is in English, so many people translate and learn English as a (2) _____ language. Another reason is the influence of American culture through movies, TV shows, and music. Many people around the world also know about Hollywood and American fast food chains.

However, this doesn’t mean that everyone speaks English well. In fact, only about 20% of the world’s (3) _____ speaks English at all! Also, many people use English at work, but not at home. The Earth

Earth, our home planet, is the third planet from the Sun and ranks as the fifth largest in the solar system. It is the only known place that supports life. The name “Earth” has been used for over one thousand years. Unlike the other planets, which were named after Greek and Roman deities, Earth’s name comes from Old English and Germanic, meaning “the ground”.

As Earth orbits the Sun, it rotates once every 23.9 hours and takes 365.25 days to complete a full orbit. The extra quarter of a day creates a challenge for our calendar, which counts a year as 365 days. To stay aligned with Earth’s orbit, we add an extra day every four years, known as a leap day, to a leap year.

The hospitable environment of Earth, along with its abundant chemical composition, has enabled life to flourish. Uniquely, much of the planet maintains a hospitable temperature, allowing liquid water to exist for long periods. Its vast oceans have created an ideal and convenient environment for life to emerge around 3.8 billion years ago.

1. Earth is the _____ largest planet in the solar system.
A. second B. third C. fourth D. fifth
2. What language does the name of Earth come from?
A. Greek or Roman mythology B. Old English and Germanic
C. The continent of Asia D. The Milky Way Galaxy
3. According to the passage, all of the following have made life on Earth abundant and convenient EXCEPT _____.
A. hospitable temperature B. Earth’s vast oceans
C. unchanging conditions D. mix of chemicals

English Around the World

In countries like the United Kingdom, the USA, and Australia people speak English as a first language. But they don't speak exactly the same English. English sounds different in these countries because people use different pronunciation and there are different words for some things. Americans don't say "football", they say "soccer", and they say "movie", not "film". Some Australians say "G'day", not "Hi", and they don't say "this afternoon", they say "this arvo". In some countries, for example India and some African countries, there are a lot of different languages, so people use English as the official language.

In countries where English isn't a first language, people speak it as a foreign language. People want to study English because it's an international language; it's in films, magazines and pop songs. A lot of people, especially scientists and business people, use English when they work, travel or use a computer.

1. Why does English sound different in the UK, the USA, and Australia?

- A. Because English is not spoken there.
- B. Because people use different pronunciation and words.
- C. Because people speak completely different languages.
- D. Because people only speak their local languages.

2. What do Americans say instead of "football"?

- A. rugby
- B. tennis
- C. soccer
- D. basketball

3. In which countries do people use English as the official language because there are many different languages?

- A. Japan and Korea.
- B. The USA and Canada.
- C. The United Kingdom and Australia.
- D. India and some African countries.

4. Which of the following is TRUE according to the text?

- A. Americans say "film" instead of "movie".
- B. People only use English when they watch films.
- C. In some countries like India, English is used as an official language.
- D. People in the UK, the USA, and Australia speak exactly the same English.

VI. Read the text and choose the letter (A, B, C or D) to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. Write your answers in the box provided. (1 pt)

Traffic jams and pollution are two big problems in the city. Traffic jams occur when there are too many cars on the roads, making it difficult for people to move around quickly. To solve this, cities can encourage people to use public transportation, like buses or trains, instead of driving their own cars. This would reduce the number of vehicles on the roads, easing traffic congestion. Pollution is another issue in cities because there is too much dirty air from vehicles and factories. One solution for this problem is to plant more trees and create more green spaces in the city. Trees provide oxygen and clean the air. By increasing the number of trees, cities can improve air quality and make the environment healthier for everyone. In conclusion, we all need to work together to solve the problems of traffic and pollution. By using public transportation and starting green projects like planting trees, we can make our city environment more sustainable and enjoyable.

1. What causes traffic jams in the city?
A. too many cars on the roads
B. too many modem machines
C. too many factories
D. too many trees
2. How can cities reduce traffic congestion according to the passage?
A. by encouraging more people to drive their own cars
B. by reducing the number of buses and trains
C. by promoting the use of public transportation
D. by building more roads for cars
3. What is suggested as a solution for pollution in cities?
A. increasing the number of factories
B. planting more trees and creating green spaces
C. encouraging more people to drive cars
D. using more fossil fuels for energy

HOW IMPORTANT IS SLEEP FOR TEENS?

Sleep plays an important part in teens' overall health and well-being. During sleep, the body undergoes essential processes, such as growth, repair, and restoration. Adequate sleep has been linked to improved cognitive function, memory, and concentration, which are vital for academic performance. It also boosts mood and emotional well-being, reducing the risk of mental health issues, such as depression and anxiety.

Teens require around 8-10 hours of sleep per night, but many often fall short due to various factors like schoolwork, extracurricular activities, and electronic devices. Lack of sleep can have negative effects on teens, leading to decreased attention span, poor decision-making, and an increased risk of accidents. Moreover, insufficient sleep has been associated with obesity, as it disrupts hormone regulation and increases cravings for unhealthy foods. It can also weaken the immune system, making teens more susceptible to illnesses.

To ensure a good night's sleep, teens should establish a consistent sleep schedule, create a sleep-friendly environment, limit caffeine and electronic device use before bedtime, and engage in relaxation techniques. Parents and educators play a crucial role in promoting healthy sleep habits and raising awareness of the importance of sleep for teens' overall well-being.

- 1. What is the role of sleep for teens?
 - A. It strengthens muscles.
 - B. It reduces cravings for unhealthy foods.
 - C. It helps with muscle growth.
 - D. It improves academic performance.
- 2. How many hours of sleep do teens require per night?
 - A. 6-8 hours.
 - B. 4-6 hours.
 - C. 8-10 hours.
 - D. 10-12 hours.
- 3. What reasons for the shortage of sleep in teens are NOT mentioned?

A. Excitement after doing sports.

B. Extracurricular activities.

C. Caffeine overconsumption.

D. Overuse of electronic devices.

4. What are teens necessary to do to sleep well at night?

A. Drink coffee before going to bed.

B. Make a sleep environment friendly.

C. Go to bed at different time.

D. Use smartphones a lot before going to bed.

Today, many teenagers are addicted to the Internet. They use it too often and for too long. Once they are on the net, they can't turn it off. In fact, the Internet is very interesting and useful. When online, you can read the news, find information, connect and share things with friends, shopping, playing games, etc. There are good reasons to spend time online.

However, teenagers with an Internet addiction are online too much. They don't just go online to find information, have fun, or study. Sometimes, they go online because they want to escape the stress and problems in their lives. Many Internet addicts stop caring about their real lives, and concentrate only on their online lives. This has a bad effect on their health, some even have a mental disorder, and their study also has to suffer.

One way Internet addicts can get help is by using special software. This software controls how much time someone can spend online. It tells the computer to turn off the internet after a certain amount of time. This helps people focus on the important things in their real life. The software's goal is to teach people to use the Internet for good reasons and not just as an escape.

- What is the main problem mentioned in the passage?
 - Teenagers don't like the Internet.
 - Many teenagers are addicted to the Internet.
 - The Internet is not useful.
 - Teenagers cannot use computers.

2. What can people do when they are online?
- A. Read news and find information
 - B. Connect with friends
 - C. Play games and shop
 - D. All of the above
3. Why do some teenagers go online too much?
- A. They want to escape stress and problems.
 - B. They have too much homework.
 - C. They don't have friends.
 - D. They want to travel.
4. Which of the following is TRUE according to the text?
- A. The Internet is not useful for teenagers.
 - B. Internet addiction can have bad effects on teenagers' health and study.
 - C. The special software helps people spend more time online.
 - D. Teenagers only use the Internet to study.

ROLES OF TECHNOLOGY IN THE FUTURE

In the future, we'll be doing lots of things with the help of technology. Now, we drive our cars to work. But in 20 years, we will be travelling to different places in our self-driving cars. At present, we use smartphones to communicate with our families and friends. Communication will be more convenient in the future because we will be wearing digital watches around wrists to make phone calls. The way we watch movies will be different in the future, too. We'll be watching films on smart walls, and these special walls will replace computers. Our free time activities will also change. Nowadays, we play online games, but we will be playing virtual reality games in 20 years. We use digital cameras to take pictures today, but in the future, we will be taking pictures using drones. These are small planes that can be controlled from the ground.

As a child, Phong always dreamt of going abroad to study. After he graduated from high school, his parents sent him over to New Zealand to attend college. Phong was very happy that his dream finally came true.

When he first arrived in the country, Phong’s English was not very good and sometimes he did not understand what other people said. He also had difficulties in class because he was not familiar with the new teaching and learning method. He felt lonely in this new place and missed all his buddies in Vietnam. The food there was so different to what his mum used to cook for him. And for the first time in his life, Phong had to think about his finances, and to plan his spending carefully. But Phong was young and enthusiastic. He learnt to adapt to this new environment. After two years, Phong is now very fluent in English and has achieved the top academic award at his school. He has a lot of friends from different countries. He is even good at being able to earn money for his daily needs from his part-time job at a restaurant.

Landforms	Bodies of Water
The surface of Earth has different landforms, which differ in size and shape. They can be mountains, valleys, deserts, dunes, or plateaus. Mountains are formed as a result of earthquakes, volcanic eruptions, and tectonic movements. Valleys, which can be V-shaped or U-shaped, are low-lying areas between mountains and hills. Deserts are dry areas which have very little rainfall and the daytime temperature is very high. Dunes are small hills made up of sand. They are created from the flow of the water. Plateaus are flat areas and highlands, which are separated from their surroundings.	Bodies of water include oceans, seas, lakes, rivers, streams, and glaciers. Water bodies form the largest habitats on Earth, providing huge living spaces for marine life. There are five oceans and seven seas and these bodies of water are salty, but most rivers, streams, and lakes have fresh water. Glaciers are the frozen bodies of water, which cover almost 10% of Earth's land area, and are sources of fresh water on Earth. Bodies of water on Earth also provide sources of water, food, medicines, and energy to humans. They help maintain biodiversity and play an important role in transportation.

1. All of the following are landforms, EXCEPT _____.

- A. valleys B. plateaus C. glaciers D. dunes

2. The landforms _____.

- A. are similar in shape and size
B. have the same shape but different sizes
C. are identical in both size and shape
D. are different in shape and size

3. Bodies of water include _____.

- A. oceans and valleys
B. salty and fresh bodies of water
C. frozen bodies of water and dunes
D. plateaus and fresh bodies of water

4. Which of the following is NOT true about bodies of water?

- A. They are a small but significant part of Earth's habitats.
B. They are great sources of food and energy for humans.
C. They play an important role in supporting biodiversity.
D. They play a significant role in transportation of goods.

Edinburgh is the capital city of Scotland. It has enormous historical significance. Located on the east coast of Scotland, Edinburgh proudly offers a window to the past. For many people, this city is an exciting mix of something traditional and something modern.

Edinburgh has been Scotland's royal city since 1437. Most of Edinburgh's sights are within two districts: the old town and the new town. The medieval Royal Mile stretching for over a mile from Edinburgh Castle to the Palace of Holyroodhouse dominates the city's central area. The Royal Mile is one of the largest, longest and most splendid streets for buildings in Britain.

To millions of visitors, Edinburgh Castle is a must-see because there are many treasures. Princes Street is in Edinburgh's new town, directly below the castle. Next to Princes Street, in the shadow of Edinburgh Castle, lies the green Princes Street Gardens. This is one of the most delightful gardens in Britain. Edinburgh is also a cultural centre. The worldwide famous Edinburgh Fringe Festival (a series of arts festivals held in August) draws thousands and thousands of visitors to the city annually. So Edinburgh is really a place no traveler should ignore.

1. What makes Edinburgh special to many people?
A. It is only a modern city. C. It has no historical value.
B. It is a mix of traditional and modern features. D. It is the largest city in Scotland.
2. What dominates the central area of Edinburgh?
A. Edinburgh Castle B. Princes Street
C. The Royal Mile D. Princes Street Gardens
3. Why is Edinburgh Castle a must-see for visitors?
A. It is the tallest building in Britain. B. It has many treasures.
C. It is located in the new town. D. It is used for arts festivals.
4. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?
A. The Edinburgh Fringe Festival is held every winter.
B. Princes Street Gardens is located far from Edinburgh Castle.
C. The Royal Mile connects Edinburgh Castle and the Palace of Holyrood house.
D. Edinburgh is famous only for its castle.

VI. Read the text and choose the letter (A, B, C or D) to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. Write your answers in the box provided. (1 pt)

Twenty years ago, people tried to leave the suburbs for cities but nowadays many people are reluctant to make such a move. They say that compared to suburban areas, city life has many drawbacks.

The high cost of living is the first disadvantage. The bigger the city is, the higher the living cost is. Accommodation and petrol are expensive. Food and drinks are also pricey. Apart from that, city people seem to suffer from more noise and air pollution. The densely populated neighbourhoods, busy traffic, and big construction sites make cities noisy and dusty. These are harmful to people's health, such as increasing their stress levels, disturbing their sleep and making them suffer from breathing problems.

Lack of space is another drawback of city life. House prices are high in the city, so people tend to live in smaller houses or in apartment blocks. Many cities lack spaces for outdoor activities; therefore, teenagers often hang out at shopping malls or in entertainment complexes instead of doing sports outdoors.

The cities' authorities are trying to overcome these problems. However, they still have a long way to go before they can reduce living costs and pollution, and increase green space to make all cities in the world more liveable places.

1. What is the passage mainly about?

- A. The reasons for moving to the suburbs.
- B. The disadvantages of city life.
- C. The high cost of living in cities.
- D. The causes of pollution in cities.

2. Why does the author mention "accommodation, petrol, food, and drinks" in paragraph 2?

- A. To give examples of high living costs.
- B. To explain how convenient city life is.
- C. To describe what city people often lack.
- D. To suggest city people save money.

3. What does the word “them” in paragraph 2 refer to?

- A. bad effects B. stress levels C. city people D. construction sites

4. Which of the following is NOT mentioned about city authorities?

- A. They are trying to find solutions to city problems.
- B. They all want to solve problems for all the world’s cities.
- C. They hope to lower the costs of living in cities.
- D. They reduced pollution levels in cities by half last year.

VI. Read the text and choose the letter (A, B, C or D) to indicate the best answer to each of the following questions. Write your answers in the box provided. (1 pt)

Experiences are the things we do and feel in our lives. They help us understand ourselves and the world better. Reflecting on these experiences helps us grow.

One of my favorite experiences is traveling. Every trip brings new adventures. For example, when I visited a small village, I got to taste local foods and take part in their traditions. Riding horses and snorkeling were exciting. Watching a tribal dance and seeing beautiful coral reefs made me appreciate the diversity of our world.

Traveling teaches us a lot. It helps us learn about different cultures and ways of life. Meeting new people and exploring new places make us more open-minded and understanding.

Another key part of my experiences is dealing with challenges. I remember a difficult school project that required a lot of work and teamwork. It was hard, but finishing it made me feel proud. This experience taught me to keep trying, even when things are tough, and gave me confidence to face new challenges.

Even small daily activities are important experiences. Working on group projects, helping others, and talking with friends all teach us something. For example, attending workshops on communication and teamwork has made me better at working with others and more confident.

In conclusion, our experiences shape who we are. They help us grow, understand ourselves, and connect with others. Every experience, big or small, makes our lives richer.

1. What is the main topic of the passage?

- A. The role of traveling in learning about different cultures
- B. The benefits of attending workshops on communication
- C. The importance of dealing with academic challenges
- D. The overall impact of experiences on personal growth

2. According to the passage, how does traveling help us?

- A. By teaching us about different cultures and ways of life
- B. By making us more physically fit
- C. By providing financial benefits
- D. By improving academic grades

3. The word "they" in the sentence "They help us grow, understand ourselves, and connect with others" refers to _____.

- A. Workshops
- B. Experiences
- C. Challenges
- D. School projects

4. According to the passage, which statement is NOT true about experiences?

- A. Traveling helps us learn about different cultures.
- B. Facing challenges teaches us to keep trying.
- C. Experiences only include major life events.
- D. Attending workshops makes us better at communication.

How important is sleep for teens?

Sleep plays an important part in teens' overall health and well-being. During sleep, the body undergoes essential processes, such as growth, repair and restoration. Adequate sleep has been linked to improved cognitive function, memory, and concentration, which are vital for academic performance. It also boosts mood and emotional well-being, reducing the risk of mental health issues, such as depression and anxiety.

Teens require around 8-10 hours of sleep per night, but many often fall short due to various factors like schoolwork, extracurricular activities, and electronic devices. Lack of sleep can have negative effects on teens, leading to decreased attention span, poor decision-making, and an increased risk of accidents. Moreover, insufficient sleep has been associated with obesity, as it disrupts hormone regulation and increases cravings for unhealthy foods. It can also weaken the immune system, making teens more susceptible to illnesses.

To ensure a good night's sleep, teens should establish a consistent sleep schedule, create a sleep-friendly environment, limit caffeine and electronic device use before bedtime, and engage in relaxation techniques. Parents and educators play a crucial role in promoting healthy sleep habits and raising awareness of the importance of sleep for teens' overall well-being.

- What is the role of sleep for teens?

A. It strengthens muscles.

B. It reduces cravings for unhealthy foods.

C. It helps with muscle growth.

D. It improves academic performance.
- How many hours of sleep do teens require per night?

A. 6-8 hours.

B. 4-6 hours.

C. 8-10 hours.

D. 10-12 hours.
- What does "It" in the second paragraph refer to?

A. Lack of sleep.

B. The benefit of sleep.

C. Consumption of caffeinated drinks.

D. Electronic device use before bedtime.
- What do teens need to do to sleep well at night?

A. Drink coffee before going to bed.

B. Use smartphones a lot before going to bed.

C. Make a sleep environment friendly.

D. Go to bed at different time.

Last summer, I visited Cu Lan Village, a small village located near Da Lat City. Surrounded by forests, mountains, and a clear stream, the village is a perfect destination for those who enjoy nature and local culture. Unlike crowded tourist places, Cu Lan Village offers a peaceful and authentic experience.

During the trip, I took part in many interesting activities. One of the most impressive moments was seeing a gong show performed by local people. The sound of the gongs was powerful and full of cultural meaning. After that, visitors were invited to dance with local people around a campfire. Although I was a little shy at first, the friendly atmosphere made me feel comfortable.

In the evening, our group was encouraged to give a small performance. We sang a simple song together, and everyone clapped and laughed. This activity helped create a strong connection between visitors and villagers. Besides entertainment, the trip also taught me to respect local traditions and protect the natural environment.

Overall, the visit to Cu Lan Village was not only enjoyable but also meaningful. It allowed me to relax, learn about local culture, and appreciate the value of simple village life.

1. Which of the following statements is NOT true?

- A. The trip helped visitors learn about local culture.
- B. The village is surrounded by nature.
- C. Visitors only watched and did not join activities.
- D. Cu Lan Village is near Da Lat City.

2. What made the writer feel comfortable joining the dance?

- A. The music was very modern.
- B. The villagers were friendly.
- C. The writer had danced before.
- D. The dance was short and simple.

3. The word “authentic” in the passage is closest in meaning to _____.

- A. real and traditional
- B. modern and convenient
- C. popular with tourists
- D. simple but boring

4. What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. A description of modern shows in Cu Lan Village
- B. A comparison between city and village life
- C. A trip mainly for entertainment
- D. A meaningful cultural visit with local activities

Women in Kenya

Back in the mid-twentieth century, Kenya was a more male-dominated society compared to today. Men were ahead of women in both education and employment. But the situation has changed a lot since then.

More and more women are working these days. They earn to support their families, as well as to be financially independent. More women study nowadays. Higher education has witnessed a great rise in the number of women attending colleges and universities.

In 1995, 65 percent of Kenyan females stayed at home as housewives. This number dropped dramatically to 47 percent in 2010. It is predicted that this number will keep falling to around 30 percent in 2025.

Only 22 percent of university students were girls in Kenya in 1995. Fifteen years later, in 2010, this number went up to 36 percent. Research shows that it will keep rising, and in 2025, about 48 percent of the student population will be made up of females.

When people speak different languages, it can be hard to talk to each other. They might not understand each other’s words. This can make them feel confused or upset. For example, if one person says something, but the other person does not understand, they might have a problem.

These problems can happen in many places. At the doctor’s office, if a person cannot explain how they feel, the doctor might not know what is wrong. At work, if people do not understand each other, they might not do their job correctly.

But, there are ways to help. Learning a few simple words in another language can make a big difference. Using apps to translate or asking someone to help can also make it easier to talk. Being patient and using easy words can help everyone understand better and have fewer problems.

- 1: Which of the following can be the best title for the passage?

A. Problems with Language Barriers

B. Why Doctors Need Translation Apps

C. How to Become Fluent in a New Language

D. The Importance of Body Language
- 2: According to the passage, language barriers can cause problems _____.

A. only in the workplace

B. in many different places

C. mainly in schools

D. mostly at home
- 3: The word it in paragraph 3 refers to _____.

A. learning new words

B. speaking another language

C. asking someone for help

D. using translation apps
- 4: Which of the following is NOT true according to the passage?

A. People might have trouble understanding each other when they speak different languages.

B. Using simple words can help people understand each other better.

C. Translation apps cannot help in communication.

D. Language barriers can make it hard to talk to a doctor.

We went camping at Ba Vi National Park, 60 kilometres to the west of Ha Noi. Our teacher chose this location as it is not far from Ha Noi and is famous as a mountainous ecological tourism centre. It is home to hundreds of wildlife species, so we had a chance to get into a real natural habitat.

We went there on a coach. We set off early and because the road was a bit bumpy and tricky, we were tired when we arrived. After about two hours, we finally reached the campsite in Ngoc Hoa cave area. We set up our camps before exploring the park. We explored the rich nature in the Botanical Garden, trying to take deep breaths of the fresh air and enjoying the diversity of the flora there. We took photos of the places we saw. At night, we burnt wood for a campfire. We sat around the fire and sang and danced. We also had team- building activities, which were exciting and memorable. On the next day, we went trekking to Thuong Temple - a national cultural monument at Tan Vien Peak. We learnt much about the culture associated with the legend Son Tinh and Thuy Tinh from our guide.

Soil Salinity in Vietnam

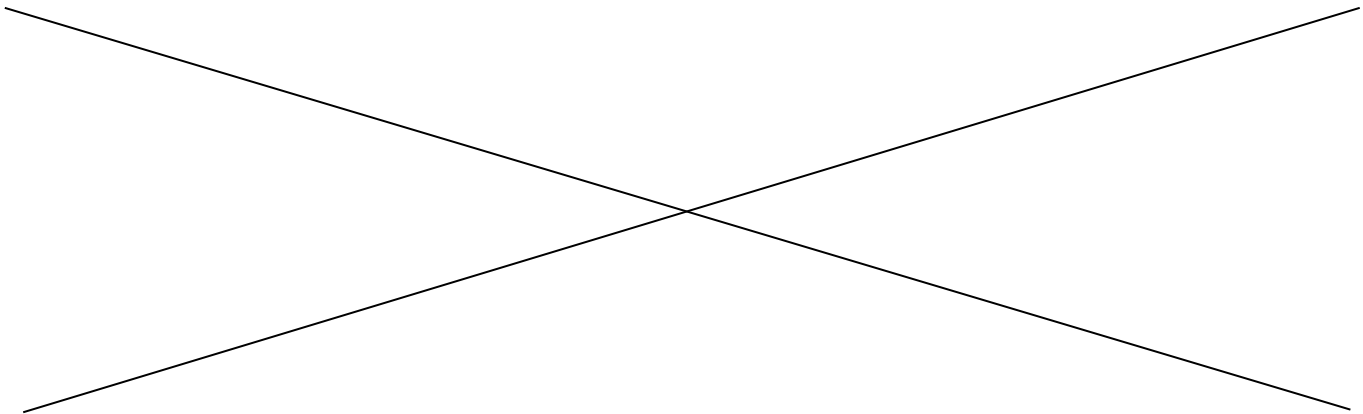

In Vietnam, farmers face a big problem called soil salinity. This happens when there's too much salt in the soil, making it hard for plants to grow. It's especially tricky in places like the Mekong Delta, where farming is essential for people's lives.

There are two main reasons why soil becomes salty in Vietnam. First, the sea is getting higher because of climate change. This means salty water from the sea goes further onto the land, making the soil salty too. Second, sometimes farmers use too much water and chemicals on their fields. This can also make the soil salty. When soil is too salty, it's tough for plants to grow well. They might not even grow at all or make enough food. This is bad news for farmers who rely on their crops to make money and feed their families. To fix this problem, scientists and farmers need to work together. They can try different kinds of plants that can handle salty soil or build better ways to manage water on the farms. It's also important to teach farmers how to take care of their land without making it too salty.

By working together and finding ways to solve the problem, Vietnam can make sure its farms stay healthy, and farmers can keep growing food for everyone.

1. The passage is mainly about_____?
- A. Soil fertility in Vietnam B. Climate change in Southeast Asia
- C. Soil salinity in Vietnam D. Agricultural practices in the Mekong Delta
2. The word "tricky" is closest in meaning to _____.
- A. straight B. simple C. risky D. challenging
3. The word "it" in paragraph 2 refers to _____.
- A. farmers B. land C. soil D. water
4. What does the passage suggest as a solution to the problem of soil salinity in Vietnam?
- A. Collaboration between scientists and farmers B. Increased use of chemical fertilizers
- C. Expanding urban areas into agricultural land D. Importing crops from other countries

What is Sports Tourism?

Sports tourism is travelling from one region, country, state, etc. to engage or participate in a sports-related activity. Sports tourism combines the passion for sports with the desire to experience new experiences or destinations.

While sports tourism has not always been extremely popular, it is definitely on the rise. A recent report estimates the value of the global sports tourism market was $587.87 billion in 2022. The industry is expected to grow at a rate of 17.5% through 2030. The popularity of events like the Olympic Games, the NBA, and the FIFA World Cup have contributed to this growth. While these events have economic short-term benefits for an area, they can be a catalyst for longer-term tourism development opportunities.

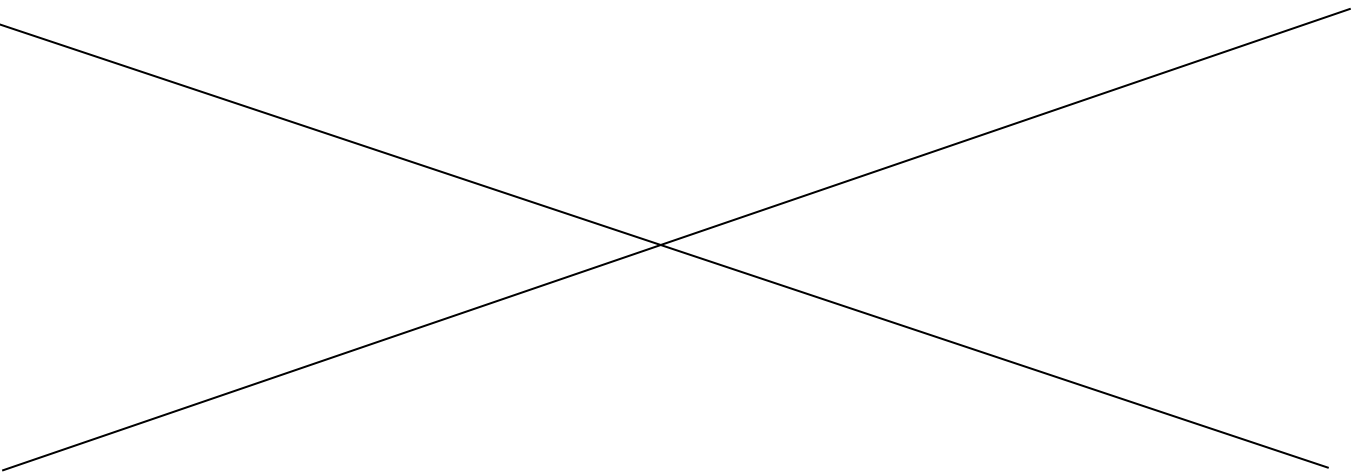

In 2004, the World Tourism Organisation (WTO) and the International Olympic Committee (IOC) issued a joint statement that illustrates the strong dynamic between sports and tourism, "Tourism and sports are interrelated and complementary. Sport - as a professional, amateur or leisure activity - involves a considerable amount of travelling to play and compete in different destinations and countries. Major sporting events, such as the Olympic Games, football and rugby championships and auto racing have become powerful tourism attractions in themselves - making a very positive contribution to the tourism image of the host destination”.
