PRACTICE

Example answer:

+ I prefer the job of a software engineer. It is a difficult but well-paid job. Moreover, I like working with computers, so I think I can do the job well.

+ I prefer the job of an assembly worker. I only need a short time to train for the job, so I can start making a living soon.)

PRONUNCIATION

Intonation in statements used as questions

Remember!

We use a statement question when we want to express our surprise at the previous statement. In some cases, we use it to check if our information is correct. In these cases, we raise our voice at the end of the statement.

Example:

A: I want to be a doctor.

B: You want to be a doctor?

PRONUNCIATION

- 4 Listen to the conversations. Pay attention the intonation in statement questions. Then practise the conversations with a partner.

1

Minh: It's 4:20 now. I must go.

Hoa: It's 4:20? Oh dear, I must go, too!

2

Mai: Mum, Ms Lan has invited you to a party.

Mother: She invited me to a party?

PRONUNCIATION

5 Complete each conversation with a statement question. Then practise the conversations with a partner. Pay attention to the intonation of each sentence.

1

Nick: Minh is very happy with the vocational test.

Trang: _____? He told me something different.

2

Elena: I want to become a surgeon.

Tom: _____? Do you have skilful hands?

PRONUNCIATION

1

Nick: Minh is very happy with the vocational test.

Trang: Minh is very happy with the vocational test?

He told me something different.

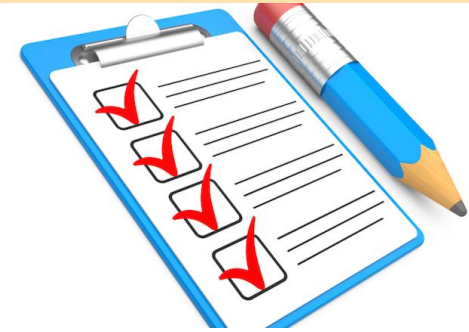

2

Elena: I want to become a surgeon.

Tom: You want to become a surgeon? Do you have skillful hands?
