Fun corner and Wrap-up

A vibrant, cartoon-style illustration on a light green grid background. In the center is a green chalkboard with a silver frame, divided into three panels. The middle panel is the largest and contains the words "Board" and "Race" written in a white, rounded, sans-serif font. Above the chalkboard is a small pink square with a white heart. To the left is a yellow sun with a face and a black squiggly line above it. To the right is a rainbow with a pink heart and yellow stars. Below the chalkboard is a yellow square with a scalloped green border containing a white cat's face. In the bottom right corner, there are orange squiggly lines. The overall style is playful and child-friendly.
